

THE STREET AT THE MEADOWS

Luxury Apartments | Retail — Washington, PA

The Residences at the Street is a new luxurious apartment community located south of Pittsburgh in Washington County, Pennsylvania and conveniently located between I-79 and Route 19. The stunning 1- and 2-bedroom apartments showcase granite countertops and stainless-steel appliances, walk-in closets, a restricted access building, elevator, complimentary parking, maintenance and many other benefits. This building is also handicapped accessible. The community offers a state of the art 24-hour fitness center, community lounge, and business center.

The first floor consists of various retail shops, where the second through fourth floors house The Residences at The Street. The set up allows you to live at the center of conveniences and entertainment, with many restaurants and shops just out your front door.
